INTERURBAN IS DEAD.

House Defeats Measure Providing For Rural Rapid Transit.

NASH'S APPOINTMENTS CONFIRMED.

No One Was Named For Oil Inspector For the Northern District of Ohio—Centennial Conferencee Are Appointed.

Columbus, O., April 12.—There was the solemnity of death in the house at 11 a. m., the hour of the funeral of the late member from Medina, Hon. Edwin A. Clement, at his late home, near Brunswick, when feelings of honor and esteem were paid the departed. Resolutions of respect were adopted. Eloquent eulogies were pronounced.

Speaker Reynolds appointed Mr. Griffin of Lucas, Mr. McKinnon of Ashland and Mr. Longworth as the house conferees upon the Ohio centennial bill. The outcome of the centennial bill is now as much a matter of speculation as ever. The consensus of opinion is that the ultimate result will be an appropriation of $500,000, or if $1,000,000, that it will be for appearance sake and a pledge to the governor to spend only half the amount and a new commission.

Mr. Ankeney's interurban railroad bill was defeated by indefinite postponement in the house. The motion to postpone was made by Mr. Hunter of Richland, and carried by a vote of 36 yeas to 34 nays. The opponents claimed that the bill gave the roads almost unrestricted powers to acquire right of way over the highways and took the power to regulate franchises to the interurban roads out of the hands of councils by appeals to the courts. Mr. Ankeney denounced opposition to the bill as being in the interest of the steam railroads, which find interurban roads are becoming formidable rivals.

Mr. Swain's bill for a commission of three to be appointed by the governor, with $5,000 for expenses and $25,000 for an Ohio building at the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo, next year, passed the house.

Senator Archer's bill for the closing of saloons Memorial day was amended by Mr. Griffin to fix the closing hours at from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Then the bill was passed, 56 yeas to 4 nays.

In the Senate.

The following appointments were sent up to the senate by Governor Nash, and at once confirmed without opposition. It will be noticed that the northern oil district inspectorship is still left open:

Joseph Blechle, Stark, trustee Blind asylum; George P. Tyler, Brown, trustee Deaf and Dumb asylum; William E. Haynes, Sandusky, trustee Imbecile institution; H. H. Greer, Knox, trustee Columbus State hospital; James D. Kelly, Belmont, trustee Cleveland State hospital; John Little, Greene, member arbitration board; John R. Malloy, Franklin, state oil inspector Southern district; George P. Krouse, Hancock, trustee Blind institution; John F. McGrew, Clark, library commissioner; Henry C. Houston, trustee Xenia home; David M. Massie, Ross, trustee State university; John McSweeney, Wayne, trustee Hospital of Epileptics; John L. Vance, Gallia, trustee Boys' Industrial school; Thomas T. Dill, Richland, trustee Sandusky Soldiers' home; George W. Vause, Cuyahoga, state board of pharmacy; Thaddeus E. Hoyt, Jefferson, trustee Girls' Industrial school; Israel M. Foster and T. R. Biddle, both of Athens, trustees Ohio university.

Bills passed by the senate were: H. B., to pay the common pleas judges of Montgomery and Butler counties $2,500, in addition to that which they draw from the state treasury; S. B., authorizing the sale of certain canal land at Massillon; H. B., providing for the listing of credits at their real value in money, instead of face value, as the law now provides; H. B., reducing the minimum age at which children may be employed in mines in the summer vacation season from 15 to 14 years; H. B., providing against the fraudulent receipt of telegraph messages; S. B., giving the supreme court original jurisdiction in injunction suits; H. B., refunding to brewers taxes paid under the Dow law from 1895, under a recent construction of the law by the supreme court. It amounts to about $30,000.

Senator Harding's libel bill was indefinitely postponed by agreement.

Senator Howard introduced a bill intended to help manufacturers of imitation butters over the decision of the supreme court against the coloring of oleomargarine. It specifically forbids the use of several colors known to be harmful, and adds or any any other harmful substance. The effect of it would be to require the state food commissioner to show that the substance used as to color was harmful. It in effect knocks out the anti-color law. Mr. Howard tried to have it read the second time at once, but that was voted down.

Lieutenant Governor Caldwell appointed Senators Pattison, Archer and Dunham a committee on behalf of the senate for conference upon matters of dispute between the two houses on the centennial bill.

Mr. Harbaugh's senate bill, amending the law requiring instruction in the common schools as to the effect of liquor and narcotics on the human system, so as to make it affective, was passed.

NEAREST RELATIVE Of General George Washington Passes Away at Washington.

Washington, April 12.—Ebenezer Burges Ball, the nearest surviving relative of George Washington, died at his residence here. He was 84 and unmarried. Mr. Ball bore a striking resemblance to General Washington. Mr. Ball was born in Loudon county, Va., but in early life went west as a pioneer and at one time was a scout and Indian fighter in the army. He came to Washington about 30 years ago, and during the last years of his life conducted, by special permission, a tobacco stand in the pension office.

The Final Meeting.

Chicago, April 12.—Magnates of the American Baseball league held their last meeting prior to the formal opening of the baseball season of 1900. The meeting was an important one, as the playing schedule prepared by President Ban Johnson came up for adoption and other important business was transacted, including action on the peace agreement between the American and National leagues involving the placing in Chicago of an American league team, under the management of Charles Comiskey.

Poison In the Coffee.

Fort Wayne, Ind., April 12.—There were sensational developments in the case of the poisoning of the family of the Rev. C. C. Cissell when City Chemist Drayer discovered the contents of a box of rough rats in the ground coffee used by the family. The Rev. Cissell was pastor of the Berry Street church here, but at the recent conference was transferred to Goshen. Mr. Cissell, Mrs. Cissell and Mr. and Mrs. Keisling, her parents, became violently ill, and Mrs. Keisling is not yet out of danger.

Vessel's Boiler Exploded.

Havana, April 12.—An explosion occurred on board the German tank steamer Gutheil, Captain Schroeder, from Philadelphia, which was anchored near Regla wharf waiting for cargo. The uproar aroused many of the inhabitants. The accident was due to a bursting boiler, which in turn led to the explosion of a large tank of oil. The vessel was not seriously damaged, but two of the crew were badly hurt.

No Extra Session.

Butte, Mon., April 12.—Governor Smith, in reply to a question as to whether he would convene the legislature in extra session to elect a senator to succeed Clark, if the latter is ousted, said: "No, sir; such an idea is absurd. You are at liberty to quote me as saying that I never would call that legislature together again under any circumstances."

Admits His Guilt.

Springfield, Ills., April 12.—W. Winn Bramble, 26, mailing clerk in the Decatur postoffice, was arrested and brought to this city charged with embezzlement. He confessed and said he had stolen $250 since last December. Thirty-one letters were found on his person when arrested, three of which were decoys. He was held in the sum of $2,000.

Streetcar Struck.

Chicago, April 12.—A Calumet electric car carrying 18 passengers was struck by an engine on the belt line railway. Three persons were seriously injured and the others more or less shaken up and cut by falling glass. The motorman attempted to cross the railroad tracks ahead of the engine.

Several Persons Killed.

Allahabad, India, April 12.—Several cases of plague have been reported at Cawnpore recently. A body of rioters attacked the segregation camp and several persons were killed. The garrison and a force of volunteers were called out to suppress the uprising.

Queen Drives Out.

Dublin, April 12.—There was a decided improvement in the weather and the queen visited the zoological gardens, to which place she drove in her donkey carriage. The review of the troops has been fixed for Saturday, and will take place in Phoenix park.

INDECISIVE BATTLES.

BRITISH RETIRE TOWARD LADYSMITH.

President of South African Republics Are Said to Be Unable to Keep Their Soldiers Inactive Any Longer.

London, April 12.—Elandslaagte and Wepener still monopolize attention. At both places a series of indecisive actions are occurring. The Boer report of the fighting on April 10 at Elandslaagte avers that the advance on the British camp was made with the loss of only three mules and two horses, while the British losses, says the same report, must have been very heavy. The bombardment lasted all day.

Nothing has been learned regarding the rumor of Colonel Baden-Powell's death, nor is there anything tending to show how long the general advance towards Pretoria will be delayed.

In the absence of exciting developments, public interest centers upon the personality of the new commanders, and in the supposition as to who the next general will be to be sent home.

The sailors of the Powerful are coming in for enthusiastic greetings, equaling that which met them on the first arrival at Portsmouth, when young and old women kissed officers and men indiscriminately as they came off the dock.

Object of Boers' Activity.

Bloemfontein, April 12.—According to information received here the Boer activity eastward of the railroad and in proximity to the border is largely due to the fact that Presidents Kruger and Steyn have found they are unable to keep their forces together in inactivity, the burghers declaring they are unwilling to remain with their commands unless actively employed, as they are convinced the British game is a waiting one. It is believed the Boer movement was originally designed to oblige Lord Roberts to weaken his force at Bloemfontein, in order to protect the railroad, when the Boers would have attempted to recapture the capital.

The burghers are evidently ignorant of the enormous force Lord Roberts has at his disposal. Advices from Karré Siding say the Boers are busily entrenching their positions east of Brandfort, running parallel with the railroad, while still strongly holding the Batalveld drift water works.

Burgers Will Plant Crops.

Pretoria, April 12.—The Free State Gazette publishes orders to the effect that no person who has been commanded for active service has the right to send a substitute without the consent of the landrost. In reference to leaves of absence, the Gazette says that 10 per cent of each command will be relieved for periods of 12 days. This is intended to meet the wishes of the burghers desiring to plant their crops.

British Are Retiring.

Pretoria, April 12.—A heavy cannonade was heard in the direction of Bultfontein, situated midway between Winburg and Boshof in the Orange Free State, and north of Brandfort. Advices from the Boer headquarters in Natal say that after a heavy bombardment the British are retiring in the direction of Ladysmith and the Federals are going to their old positions.

Horses For South Africa.

Indianapolis, April 12.—Horse dealers in this city are purchasing horses for use of the British cavalry in South Africa. Three carloads bought will be shipped to Kansas City for inspection. From there they will go to Galveston, where they will be taken on board a steamer. Mules are also being bought up for the same purpose from Indiana farms.

Situation at Wepener.

Pretoria, April 12.—Advices from Wepener, where a British force is surrounded, say the battle continues favorable to the Federals. About 1,500 British troops are said to be there.

Brabant at Aliwal North.

London, April 12.—It now appears that General Brabant himself is at Aliwal North, and that only a portion of his column is at Wepener.

Senate's Action.

Washington, April 12.—At the close of Mr. Burrows' speech against the seating of Mr. Quay Mr. Morgan moved to take up the Nicaragua canal bill. It was antagonized by Mr. Lodge because it would displace the Philippine bill. Mr. Morgan's motion was lost—15 to 33.

HON. CHARLES H. ALLEN Is Said to Be Booked For Governor of Porto Rico.

Washington, April 12.—Charles H. Allen, at present assistant secretary of the navy, will be the first civil governor of Porto Rico under the provisions of the bill passed by the house. While the formal tender and acceptance of the position can not be made until the president signs the bill, it is known that Mr. McKinley has been bringing pressure to induce Mr. Allen to relinquish the care of his considerable private interests for a sufficient time at least to install the new civil government in the island, and the latter has consented to assume the new responsibilities. Inasmuch as the act takes effect on the first of next month, there is but little time left in which to outline a skeleton form of government, including the formation of a cabinet. It is understood that the new governor will be taken to Porto Rico in one of the finest vessels of the navy.

Secured No Money.

Chicago, April 12.—Three masked men secured entrance to the offices of the Phoenix Brewing company, at 55 West Division street, at sunrise, and overpowered the night watchman after a hard struggle. They then bound and gagged him, and placed him near the boilers in the engine room. The robbers then went to work on the big office safe, supposed to contain a large sum of money. Before completing their work, however, they became alarmed and fled. Officials of the brewing company claim the robbers secured no money. The watchman was nearly dead from the heat of the boilers when rescued.

For Killing a Half Bred.

Chesterfield, S. C., April 12.—The jury in the Cassie Boan case returned a verdict of guilty with a recommendation for mercy. Harvey and John Jackson will receive life sentences. Tom Steen, who was implicated in the murder, turned state's evidence. The Jacksons had made threats against the girl, and on March 20 her burned, lacerated and blistered body was found in a forest near Jefferson. There were four deep gashes across her body and all of her clothing had been burned off.

The murder and trial created a sensation in this part of the state. The woman was half Indian.

Bridges Swept Away.

Dallas, April 12.—Mayor Williams of Columbus, Tex., sent out the following bulletin at noon: "The Southern Pacific railroad bridge over the Colorado river at this place, which was injured by the flood, has been entirely swept away. All of the wagon bridges are gone. The town is entirely surrounded by water, and one-half of the town is submerged. No lives have been lost, but all the crops are ruined and all of the cultivated land overflowed. The river is falling slowly."

Refused a Landing.

San Francisco, April 12.—Twenty-three of 219 Japanese steerage passengers who arrived on the steamer Belgian King a few days ago have been refused a landing by the immigration officials, but have appealed to the secretary of the treasury, and, pending a reply from Washington, will be held. The principal reason for their rejection by the officials is the discovery of evidence that the Japanese came here as contract laborers.

Saloonist Killed.

Indianapolis, April 12.—Paul Theodore Weiss, a saloonkeeper, died from a wound received Monday by being struck over the head with a whisky bottle in the hands of an unknown man. There were no witnesses to the trouble. The friends of Weiss say the affair was a cold-blooded murder. The man who struck Weiss did so after refusal of a flask of whisky on credit, and he left scarcely a clew for the police to work upon.

Corpses at Sea.

Victoria, B. C., April 12.—Arrethusa, which arrived at Esquimalt, reports passing three bodies, evidently male Europeans, floating just off San Francisco, on April 7. There was no wreckage in the vicinity, but it was presumed the bodies were from some foundered ship. There was a heavy gale blowing and it was impossible to investigate.

Industrial Convention.

Chattanooga, Tenn., April 12.—The second annual meeting of the Southern Industrial convention, to be held in this city May 15 to 18, is beginning to assume national interest and proportions. Delegations from a number of northern cities, notably New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, have already signified their intention of being present.

Church Burned.

Concord, Mass., April 12.—The First Parish church, one of Concord's best known historic buildings, was destroyed by fire. The loss is $25,000.

BUILDING COLLAPSES.

Four Story Wholesale Establishment at Pittsburg Falls.

SEVERAL PEOPLE KILLED IN RUINS.

The Structure Was Undergoing Repairs and the Weight of the Stock on Upper Floors Was Too Great.

Pittsburg, April 12.—The big double front 4-story brick building at the corner of Wood street and Second avenue, occupied by the Armstrong-McKelvy Lead and Oil company, collapsed, burying a number of employes, customers and carpenters at work on the building beneath the ruins.

The disaster involved the entire front of the building, but fortunately the greater number of imprisoned employes were in the rear of the building and escaped with slight injuries, or none at all.

It is certain that two clerks were caught in the wreck, and at least two customers were also imprisoned. In addition five carpenters were at work remodeling the interior of the store-rooms, and of these but one had been accounted for. He was Harry Bowles, and was working in the office in the rear of the building. He made a thrilling escape through a window with Miss Annie Stewart, the stenographer for the company, in his arms.

Only one dead body and three injured persons have so far been taken from the ruins. The dead body was identified as that of Oscar Bigel, a carpenter.

Eugene C. Burnhardt, salesman, is known to be in the wreck, and it is supposed is dead.

The injured taken out are: Noel Casper, injured internally; Michael Shang, leg broken and injured internally; unknown man unconscious and in a serious condition.

The cause of the accident is ascribed to the weakening of the building by the removal of the partition separating the room formerly occupied by the company from one which had been leased. The walls fell in from each side toward the center of the building, and as the carpenters were at work in the middle of the building, it is feared that they were all buried.

A fire alarm was turned in at once, and the department responded without delay, but 10 minutes before the first fireman was on the scene, there were hundreds of spectators gathered around. These were pushed back out of danger by the police. The front of the building was merely a mass of wrecked brick, mortar and woodwork.

The rear remained standing, but the walls were visibly swaying, and occasionally sent down a shower of bricks as a warning to the curious not to venture too close.

Notwithstanding the danger, 100 men were soon at work searching for those who were caught in the ruins. The work was necessarily slow. About 1 p. m. a portion of the third floor fell in and five of the searchers were caught in the debris, but they were promptly rescued and were not seriously injured.

At 2 p. m. the bodies of a man and woman were found. They were not identified at first.

STRIKE ORDERED.

Telegraphers and Station Employees on the Southern Quit Work.

Atlanta, April 12.—President W. V. Powell of the Order of Railway Telegraphers has ordered a strike of the telegraphers and other station employes of the Southern railway, to begin at once. The Southern has about 1,200 employes of this class.

Non-Union Men Assaulted.

Chicago, April 12.—Strike sympathizers eluded the guards at the Marshall Field building, and assaulted two men. The foreman of the tuck pointers, who was asked by two men for work, upon replying that no union men would

The editor of the Ledger seems badly befuddled over that decision of the Court of Appeals in the gubernatorial contest case.

So the Republicans are going to run Mr. Taylor for Governor again if the Supreme Court decides against him. Well, they must be hard up for material.

The Judges of the Court of Appeals made a serious mistake by not calling in the editor of the Ledger to enlighten them before they decided the case involving the Governorship.

Of course the learned Judge Burnam and Judge Guffy did very wrong in concurring in the decision of the Democratic Judges sustaining Mr. Beckham's claims to the Governorship.

Off with the war taxes. Secretary Gage estimates that there will be a surplus of $70,000,000 on June 30, 1900, and a surplus of $82,000,000 at the end of the fiscal year 1901 under the present revenue laws.

DISCRIMINATION.

Why should the Senate discriminate? Clark is not the only one ever sent to that body by the corrupt use of money. It may be only a coincidence, but the fact is a Democrat charged with bribery is not given the same chance in the Senate as a Republican like accused. Clark, of Montana, is picked for slaughter, while Senator Hanna met at its threshold, when he entered the Senate, with equally as grave a charge given his seat without even an investigation. What there might have been in the allegations against Hanna no one knows, because the Senate would not inquire. If the Republican boss had received his just deserts he would no doubt have been kicked out also, but he had the whip hand and has been running the Republican machine.

COMMENTING on the advent of Admiral Dewey in the political field, W. R. Hearst, in his evening New York Journal, has the following to say in a signed editorial:

Not only do William J. Bryan's services in the time of adversity entitle him to the Democratic nomination, but he is the best representative of that hostility to privilege, favoritism and corruption which is the essence of Democracy, and which has become the one vital issue in American politics. The American people all love and honor Dewey, but many believe that the grand old man is being deceived and used by McLean and a clique of corruptionists. The Journal is happy to learn that Dewey is a Democrat, and is sure that as a Democrat he will be called upon to support and strengthen in some adequate capacity the coming Democratic administration. But the Journal stands, as it has always stood, for William Jennings Bryan for President of the United States.

THE Chicago Times-Herald must be thoroughly disgusted with its party's Porto Rican policy. It continues to rake the McKinleyites fore and aft. "If there is a pro-Porto Rico-tariff Republican in Washington," it remarks, "who has not accused the country at large of gross ignorance of the Porto Rico tariff bill the Times-Herald would like to have him stand up and be counted. From Speaker Henderson down to Congressman Boutell the cry all along the line is that the bill is misunderstood and that full knowledge of its purpose will remove any impression that it discriminates against Porto Rico.

"The American people are opposed to the Porto Rico tariff bill because it is a departure from the invariable practice of the republic in dealing with and organizing our other territories. "They see no reason why the island should fare any better or any worse than have and do other territories of the United States.

"They see that in treating Porto Rico differently from Hawaii the Republican majority in Washington is attempting to substitute a colonial system for the territorial system, and to this it is apparent the American people are unalterably opposed.

"Is it not about time the apologists of the indiscreet, pernicious and coddling colonial bill for Porto Rico ceased to prattle about its provisions being misunderstood? The simple phrase, 'our plain duty,' uttered by the President last December, has more weight with the American people than all the tons of explanations and excuses that have been issued by the Republican majority in Congress since it substituted a 15 per cent. customs duty for a plain duty."

OUTSIDE VIEWS.

Comments of the Press on the Court of Appeals' Decision in the Taylor-Beckham Case.

[New York Tribune, Rep.]

So far as we are able to ascertain, the general opinion of the country, without regard to party, coincides with the judgment of the Kentucky courts, that under the law—a valid law, however odious—the Legislature had full authority to declare Goebel and Beckham elected, and that its decision was legally effected under conditions for the peculiar character of which the majority was not responsible. If the title of Goebel, and consequently of Beckham, had rested on no secure foundation than the signature to a paper passed around in a hotel while Goebel was on his deathbed, it would have been fragile indeed and probably worthless; but that erratic action was subsequently ratified by the formal process of a resolution and a vote, which in the opinion of the court did actually vest the title in Goebel and passed it on to Beckham, Gov. Taylor having no authority to adjourn the Legislature. It has been alleged that when this vote was taken Mr. Goebel was still a Senator and consequently that the nineteen members present constituted one less than a quorum; but this point does not seem to have been pressed before the courts, and unless there is some element in the case which is not generally understood it is difficult to see how any one can reasonably expect the Federal Court, provided it accepts jurisdiction, to reverse the decision which has just been sustained by the State Court of Appeals.

[Kansas City Times, Dem.]

The opinion of these learned jurists is not based upon any clause of the Goebel election law, but upon the plain and mandatory provisions of the Kentucky State Constitution. * * * The court went beyond the declaration of the spuriousness of Usurper Taylor's claims, and in effect branded him as an outlaw and a revolutionist. * * * The concurrence of the Republican Judges in the decision deprives the apologists and defenders of Taylorism of the opportunity of claiming that the Court of Appeals was actuated by partisanship.

[Few York Post, Ind.]

The decision of the Kentucky Court of Appeals in the governorship case will be no surprise to lawyers. All the Democratic and two of the Republican Judges held that the action of the Legislature, in exercising its constitutional prerogative of deciding contested elections, was final. As the Constitution has committed this function to the Legislature, the Goebel law, which prescribes the manner in which the function should be discharged, was intrinsically a proper statute.

* * * The Legislature thus clearly acted within its jurisdiction in finding, after a trial conducted according to the terms of the statute, that Goebel was elected, however informal the final stages of the proceeding may have been on account of the soldiery. It is a general rule that the courts will not set aside acts which the Legislature performs when they are within its jurisdiction. In this case the Legislature was performing a judicial function committed to it by the Constitution, and its action could no more be reviewed than that of the Court of Appeals itself. It must happen, from time to time, that even the highest courts commit error, and sanction injustice; but it is impossible to devise remedies for such evils. The wisdom of separating the legislative from the judicial functions of government is emphasized by the result in this particular instance.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

State Senator Johnson, of Louisa, Not a Candidate For Congress.

[Enquirer.]

State Senator Johnson, of Louisa, Lawrence County, Kentucky, who has been "mentioned" as a probable candidate for the Democratic Congressional nomination in the "Fighting Ninth" district, represented by Republican Pugh, was at the Gibson Wednesday, and declared to the Enquirer man that he would not leave his happy home for a seat in Congress.

He said that under no circumstances will he be a candidate. "I was at Frankfort this winter," he feelingly remarked, "and that was enough of politics to last me a life-time."

Hon. James N. Kehoe, the talented Maysville (Ky.) attorney and brother were at the Gibson Wednesday. He is the most mentioned man in his district (the Ninth) for the Democratic Congressional nomination. It is conceded that he will be a candidate, and a mighty potent one. He missed the nomination two years ago by a very narrow margin, and his friends claim that he will win in a walk this time.

[Dover News.]

Hon. James N. Kehoe and Mr. Clarence Mathews, Maysville's handsome postmaster, were in Dover Monday evening on business. Mr. Kehoe gave the News office a pleasant call. He has not yet consented to make the race for Congress, but we can give you a pointer to the effect that if he does make the race he will be the next Congressman from the Ninth district.

OUR PARIS PATTERN HATS.

All declare the styles unique and absolutely proper. No two trimmed alike. Prices from $1.69 to $6.50, but worth fully 30 to 40 per cent. more.

A COMPLETE DRESS GOODS STOCK.

We believe we are justified in stating that our Dress Goods stock is now complete in every detail. Plaid Homespuns, forty inches wide, worth fully 75c., our price 59c. Golf Plaids from $1 to $2.25 per yd. The new stripes in cloths of all wool, 50c. to $1 per yd. Sybeline Plaids, 50c. a yd. Black Mercerized Brocades that are sold elsewhere at 40c. are sold here 29c. And a host of other fabrics that lack of space prevents mentioning.

THE WEATHER AND CROPS.

Weekly Bulletin by the Section Director at Louisville as to the Outlook in Kentucky.

Light showers occurred in the western and southern portions of the State during the first of the week; this was followed by dry, cool weather during the balance of the week except on Saturday and Sunday, when the temperature rose and the weather was spring-like. The weather was very favorable for farm work and good progress was made generally. The sowing of oats was nearly completed. Early potatoes and garden vegetables were planted. A great deal of plowing for corn and tobacco was done, and in some localities a little corn was planted. The cool weather, with frosty nights, retarded the growth of vegetation of all kinds, and in this respect the season is very backward. Very few green leaves are to be seen on any trees and, except in a few localities, no bloom has appeared on fruit trees of any kind.

While wheat has not made much growth, it is reported to be generally in good condition. In some localities there is some complaint of damage by the Hessian fly and in some places it has been injured by freezing, but the crop, as a whole, is in excellent condition. Oats have been sown and some are coming up. Tobacco plants are coming up and are doing well. Old clover is reported to be in poor condition.

Fruit trees of all kinds look quite promising in nearly all sections. Grass has not yet made much start. Gardens are backward and only the earliest vegetables are making their appearance.

While the season is backward, nothing has been injured and a few days of warm weather, with occasional showers, would bring everything up in good shape.

The City of Pittsburgh passed down Thursday at noon with a fine trip for Louisville. She will be the Pittsburgh packet Saturday evening.

To prevent a shortage of coal in the event of a strike in the Pittsburgh district, contracts have been closed for the shipment of 500,000 tons of West Virginia coal to Pittsburgh.

The largest tow of lumber handled by one boat on the Ohio is being brought up the river by the H. F. Frisbie. She has five model barges, containing 3,600,000 feet of lumber, 2,700,000 for Cincinnati.

Pittsburg towboats are going to the bank as fast as they arrive at headwaters, and the crews are being paid off. No coal is loaded and there is nothing for them to do, as the miners have not yet returned to work.

Easter Eggs Dyes.

Plain colors, pictures, marbles and calico dyes in one package for 5 cents at Chenoweth's drug store.

Americans are known as a dyspeptic people. The extent of this disease may be inferred from the multitude of so called "medicines" offered as a remedy. They are often in tablet form and have no value except as palliatives of the immediate effects of dyspepsia. The man who uses them may feel better but is surely getting worse. They do not touch the real cause of the disease. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a medicine especially prepared to cure diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It is not made to give temporary relief but to effect permanent cure. In ninety-eight cases out of every hundred it cures perfectly and permanently.

It has cost Dr. Pierce $25,000 to give away in the last year the copies of his People's Common-Sense Medical Adviser, which have been applied for. This book of 1000 pages is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO.

Figures Showing Amount of Its Capitalization and Its Earnings Per Mile.

The Wall Street Daily News says: "Chesapeake and Ohio is in absolute control of the Pennsylvania people, and it goes without saying that this means larger earnings and greater profits than ever before secured by the Chesapeake and Ohio. A brief summary of the status of the property at this time, such as is appended, will prove of interest:

Miles operated.....	1,276
Bonds per mile.....	$ 52,960
Stock per mile.....	47,442

Capitalization per mile.....	$100,402
Gross earnings per mile (1898-99).....	9,412
Operating expenses per mile.....	5,330

Net earnings per mile.....	$ 3,082
Other income per mile.....	78

Gross income per mile.....	$ 3,160
Fixed charges per mile.....	2,579

Balance per mile.....	$ 582
Equated on stock.....	1 1/4 p. c.

In the eight months ended February 28, 1900, the company showed as follows:

Gross earnings increased.....	$89,230
Expenses increased.....	650,852

Net earnings increased.....	$248,378

"Allowing for increased maintenance expenses and other extra outlays, it appears that the Chesapeake and Ohio can safely pay a dividend of from 1 1/2 to 2 per cent on the stock. If this was possible during a year when the company was a "free lance," or rate disturber, what will it be able to do this year, with rates on seaboard soft coal advanced 35c. a ton and the powerful backing of the Pennsylvania and the Vanderbilt railroads? There is no doubt but that these facts are the basis for the quiet buying movement now under way in the shares."

Quick Change.

[Hunterdon, N. J. Democrat.]

Only a few months ago, just previous to, during and after the Dewey celebration in New York, the Republican newspapers were telling that Admiral Dewey was a Republican and proving it by all sorts of claims. Now these newspapers are throwing all kinds of ridicule at the Admiral, just because he has awakened and says that he is a Democrat. One, the "State Gazette," even says he was born too late, as he would have made a grand "King's Jester" had he lived three or four hundred years ago.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Removes everything in sight; so does drastic mineral pills, but both are mighty dangerous. Don't dynamite the delicate machinery of your body with calomel, croton oil or aloes pills, when Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are gentle as a summer breeze, do the work perfectly. Cures headache, constipation. Only 25c. at J. James Wood & Son's drug store.
